Panelists:

Caroline Stanton, Government Attorney, US Department of Justice
Marianne Kies, Government Attorney, US Department of Justice

This legal writing workshop will bring us "Back to Basics" on effective legal writing skills. Department of Justice trial attorneys Caroline Stanton and Marianne Kies will discuss the key elements of compelling and persuasive legal writing. Topics include content organization, headings and citations, transitions, introductions, editing, and more! Attendees can participate through interactive examples and a Q & A session following the presentation.

Refunds can only be processed for cancellations received more than two business days prior to the event.

Both women and men are encouraged to attend WBA events and join the organization as members.
